Elder Network of the Capital Region

- Is an online database of community resources & information for seniors and persons with disabilities in Albany, Rensselaer, Saratoga, & Schenectady Counties.

- Links individuals, families, and caregivers to community services, providers and resources throughout New York's Capital Region.

Tools you can use

Services An extensive four-county directory of organizations, programs and businesses where you live that can help you maintain a home, promote good health and keep connections to the community. Find transportation, housing, & home care or senior centers searching by topic or by proximity to your location.

Learn About A collection of national and Capital Region resources about vital subjects such as Assistive Technology, Civil Rights, Community Life, Education, Employment, Financial Benefits, Health, Housing, NY Connects: The Point of Entry for Long Term Care, & Transportation. The Learn About library is comprised of articles, brochures and web links.

Online Account While registration is NOT necessary to use ElderNetworkNY, a free ElderNetworkNY.org account enables users to post classified ads, rate products or services you've used, and interact with the online community. Registered users can create online files to collect research about services to share with family members or caregivers.

Businesses that provide services to our audience are encouraged to register to update information about their programs online as partners in keeping our database timely and accurate. (We regret that at this time ENCR is unable to register and maintain entries for individual practitioners.)
